The Government Solution

The craze of the land the past year has been the expedient passage of what is referred to as Megan's Law, which is the notification of neighbors or the community of the impending residence of known, convicted sex offenders.

Megan's Law is the result of the child molestation and death of a child lured from her home
by a twice convicted sex offender in Hamilton Twp. NJ, not far from our home office.

The crime committed was horrible indeed, and the offender, awaiting trial at this moment, should be immediately put to death. Make no mistake, we at Colony News would like to have 5 minutes alone with this pervert, whereas swift terminal justice would be administered.

Megan's Law was first rushed to passage by the NJ State Legislative branches and quickly signed into law by Gov.

Whitman; this was soon repeated on a national level and recently signed into Federal Law by Clinton. It is now law-of-the-land.

As usual, the problem with government enacting solutions to societies problems often present more liberty questions then prevention of crime.

We feel the correct solution to the Megan case was not enactment of another law-but the detention and prevention of the act in the first place.
Incarceration of the perpetrator would have prevented this hideous crime.

We wonder where Megan's
notification provisions will lead
Will smokers, bad drivers, meat eaters, even Patriots be someday subject to community notification?

The bleeding-heart liberals create a system which allows these perverts to roam the countryside freely; committing their despicable acts-then enact ever yet more laws to correct their misguided liberalism which created the problem.

We feel Megan's Law is wrong
This twice convicted sex offender should not have been free in the first place. Stricter enforcement of sex offender laws would have prevented this tragedy.

The American Republics v. The Democracies

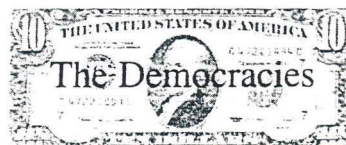

ABOUT THE FRONT COVER: The flag of the United States of America is the emblem of the constitutional government for the independent and sovereign confederated republican states. It cannot serve as the emblem for the unconstitutional democratic government for the states consolidated with the national government. The Federal Reserve Notes that circulate as legal tender under the authority of the democracy are its emblems, and the instrumentalities of the insurrection against the constitutional republican states.

BETWEEN THE BOOK'S COVERS: Read about;

- the constitutional republican governments
- the unconstitutional democratic governments
- the demise of republican state common law due to the national democratic entitlement regulations
- the economics of republican capitalism, democratic collectivism, socialism, and communism
- ancient and modern banking schemes
- the first and second United States banks chartered before the Civil War
- the National banks chartered during the Civil War
- the Federal reserve bank corporation chartered in 1913
- American currencies before and after ratification of the United States Constitution
- the entitlement contract for Federal Reserve Notes
- the voluntary nature of all entitlement contracts, including social security and income tax
- how the United States Supreme Court avoids the Constitution in entitlement contract cases
- the proposed republican state chartered banks and trust companies, and interest free home loans
- the plan for paying all Federal Reserve Note debts
- eliminating social security without cutting benefits

Intrigue In The Desert

By: Richard Struthers

Amid the desolate surroundings encompassing Tonto National Forest within driving distance of Phoenix, a group of armed and camouflaged dressed men were practicing fireworks; the type, it would be alleged later, used to create mayhem and destruction.

Unbeknown to the dozen desert denizens, reports of their activity had filtered down to BATF agent Jose Wall in Phoenix, whereupon an anonymous Arizona Fish and Game agent was recruited to infiltrate and learn more of the groups activities.

After successfully infiltrating the group the following startling revelations were announced to the public as a result of the ATF's 6 month probe:

The group was identified as the Viper Militia, a spin-off of the loosely knit Arizona Militia. The Vipers consisted of 10 men and 2 women, though at one time it's membership was as high as 65. The Vipers, after being arrested and their premises searched, were said by ATF agents to have possession of 2 machine guns; six rifles; 11,463 rounds of ammunition; hundreds of pounds of chemicals which could be used in the manufacture of bombs and a videotape allegedly showing the Vipers firing weapons and setting off bombs.

Immediately after the raids and arrests- and before any trial determining guilt or innocence-President Clinton appeared on TV decrying the Viper Militia as certified domestic terrorists and praising the efforts of the ATF for yet another freedom saving arrest.

Despite Clinton's broad-brush painting of the Vipers as indicative of militias in general, Jack McLamb, a Patriotic former Phoenix police officer said He wasn't aware of the Viper group. All militias contacted by Colony echoed the same response.

So who and what exactly are the Vipers? Are they a super secretive para-military underground branch of more publicized militia organizations, or just a bunch of veterans playing soldier in the desert?

While much focus is placed on recognized militias across the country; there are militant underground cells in existence. The Minutemen of NJ, led by Commander X is one example, and do the Sons of the Gestapo exist? We have heard of secret cells operating in the deep south as well as the mountain states. The southwest could produce more groups than just Vipers.

The Vipers were founded by Rick Walker, a furniture salesman and included the husband and wife team of Ellen and David Belliveau.

The entire group was charged with planning to blow-up government buildings housing the Secret Service, FBI and IRS. Viper Gary Bauer was allegedly reported to having targeted law enforcement officers and developing a rocket able to destroy a police car.

Finis Walker, the Viper Captain, said the groups heavy weapons were needed to deal with swat teams and explosives were necessary to defeat heavy armor increasingly being used by Federal agencies. Walker was recorded as discussing urban warfare, race riots and martial law, subjects that are real concerns for all Americans.

A pointed demonstration of just who comprises the militia movement in this country reveals that Viper Randy Lynne Nelson, the leader of the group is a house painter; Dean Carl Pleasant is a former doughnut maker and once ran unsuccessfully for a state senate seat in 1994. Henry Overturf is a bouncer for a local Phoenix nightclub and Ellen Belliveau worked for AT&T.

After the arrests, which were conducted by the BATF, the Maricopa Sheriff's Department and the National Guard; six of the members were released under house arrest after Judge Barry Silverman declared the six not to be a threat to the community, despite protests by the Reno Justice Department.

In fact, as more details began to emerge regarding the Vipers, the more suspect the governments case was. In an all too familiar scenario, repeatedly Federal agents infiltrate a group, propose illegal activities, then arrest the subjects for conspiracy.

ATF Director John Magaw blamed the rise in terrorist groups on the Internet, saying it allowed militias to communicate and inform each other of government activities. We have no doubt Magaw would suppress all information on the governments activities if allowed.

Defense Attorney Tom Martinez said: there is no evidence the Vipers were planning to overthrow the government-in fact they are not charged with that.

In fact the indictments against those arrested did Not even allege conspiracy to blow up federal buildings. Of course Treasury Undersecretary Ray Kelly publicly announced from the White House Lawn the Vipers were prevented from blowing up Federal buildings.

And once again, by the Feds own admission, they had known for six months of the Vipers plans, movements and threats, if there were any. Just as the government had infiltrated the Arab terrorist group responsible for the NYC bombing-therefore having implicit prior knowledge of the act, and as many believe the Feds having prior knowledge of the Oklahoma City bombing, once again implying conspiracy involvement; the question asked is why the government does not prevent these acts instead of condemning them after the fact.

Whether or not this group was involved in anti-government terrorist activity or was prompted to conspiracy by a government informant we do not know at this time. But the Patriotic movement in America is suspicious of any charges presented by the Feds against militia members.

The governments record of planting evidence and provoking confrontations with Patriotic Americans is well documented; remember the manufactured stories of drug usage and child molestation against the Branch Davidians, and the planted bomb-making materials discovered on Georgia Militia leader Bob Starr. The government inducement for Randy Weaver to sell 2 illegal weapons makes the Feds unbelievably

The Clinton White House - An American Government In Disgrace

By: Patrick Dublin

We are not aware if fellow Americans have taken note head bowed, solemnly offering his condolences to yet another grieving family or the nation upon the death of an American citizen, public servant or military personnel.

This bereavement scene is becoming alarming. While the deaths of military personnel while engaged in duty to their country occurs on every President's watch and the passing of prominent public figures cannot be predicted; never before has the country been subjected to death of a public nature to the degree present since Clinton assumed the White House.

of the constant television image of President Clinton,

President Clinton has presided over almost four years of repeated funeral services, some of which are highly suspicious and others involving stupidity of decision making combined with amateurish advice.

Militarily speaking, it's insane to believe the deaths of serviceman and women engaged in World Colony policing activity in Somalia, Haiti, Saudi Arabia and Bosnia was warranted, not to mention the highest number of peacetime service related deaths involving accidents, equipment failures and suicides. The military is at its lowest state of moral and preparedness since the Carter years of the late '70s. Ex-Serviceman being arrested for domestic terrorism, others being charged with covert racism, and still others refusing to serve under the UN flag.

Poorly planned missions and security in Somalia and Saudi Arabia, combined with equipment shortages had led directly to the military becoming an unnecessarily highly dangerous occupation.

Domestically, Americans are increasingly subject to fear of life due to both foreign instigated and domestic terrorism. The nation's public buildings have become mini-fortresses; even the White House reminds one of a bunker in Beirut.

Airplane mishaps, through faulty equipment and terrorism is on the increase. There have been 34 major train accidents the past four years. The nations churches are being burned and the public is becoming nervous over all forms of public transportation. Public servants en-masse take a holiday on April 19 due to their fear of harm.

While all this public apprehension is taken place the government increasingly assaults its citizens. The sight of armored vehicles, once unthinkable to Americans, has become the common method of suppression of disaffected citizens. Even during the riots of the '60s, armored vehicles were seldom seen. The nation's police departments now train and wear Army style uniforms and tote high-tech weapons capable of multi-killing.

The Federal Agencies assigned the protection of our liberties have become the people's enemy. The IRS hounds and harasses citizens over an illegal confiscatory tax system reminiscent of King George; The FBI's chief occupation is now eavesdropping electronically on the country's citizens;

The Treasury Department, once entrusted with protecting the peoples living standard-money-now has at its disposal a para-military force-the BATF, which only the Nazi SS and KBG rival in dictatorial power.

The nations youth have resumed the usage of drugs at a rate equivalent to the '60s. Urban areas are beset with area-controlled organized youth gangs, capable and willing to disregard life with the flick of a trigger.

Clinton is the first non-Christian President in memory, with little regard for religion except for political purposes; and the nation's decaying moral principles are indicative of it's leader. Religion, and Christian Principles are under attack by the courts, the press, the media, and the government.

The Clinton administration has allowed unlimited immigration to fill the country's states; then purposely funded their re-settlement at a cost of billions to taxpayers. The integration of our nation's culture has been deliberately compromised the past four years. Multicultrism has replaced Americanism in the land of our Founding Fathers.

The American people, rapidly becoming the most compliant in the world's history, look the other way as scandal upon scandal unravels nationally from Washington. Patriotic Americans, who oppose the Clinton disgrace, are termed extremists by the government and the Zionist controlled media.

All this, and more, has occurred during the Clinton Presidency - the most evil period in American history!

Clinton is a product of the '60s and '70s, the most turbulent and socialistic period since the Roosevelt years, I know, because I grew up during this period also; and I understand where Clinton comes from. There were two generational by-products of the '60s. The predominately socialists and the predominately patriots. These forces are in clash during the '90s, as they have both assumed control of the government and business. The patriots fought in the streets against the socialists during the '60s and '70s; now, in the '90s, they still fight; some through militias, some through government.

Bill Clinton represents the worst his generation produced. In addition to the tragic Clintonesque view of America this nations peoples have had imposed upon them; which, believe it or not, will pass; it's the almost 20 years of programmed absolute corruption, conspiracy and death that may change the face of this Land-Of-The-Free forever.

Clinton is corrupt beyond description. Stalin, Mussolini, Idi Amin and Castro pale in comparison.

From his recruitment by the Mossad and KGB while in Moscow during the '60, through his programmed rise to power in the corrupt small backwoods out-of-the-way state of Arkansas, to his blackmailed induced co-operative complicity in drug running at the Mena, Arkansas airport, to his silent acknowledgment of necessary death warrants issued against confidants who were deemed at risk in exposing Clinton's bought-for agenda, to the indictments and cover-ups, including even more deaths involving the White House itself.

The Child murdering Attorney General, Janet Reno; her score: 18 children murdered at Waco and one at Ruby Ridge, was brought into the lesbian White House by friends of Hillary with the assurance as long as she cooperated in squashing male heterosexuals; conveniently termed patriots, terrorists and extremist, her own bizarre dykish sexual proclivities would be acceptable. Such is how death is administered by the Clinton Justice Department; that is, based on abnormal sexual behavior. Which we believe is the sole litmus test for Clinton appointees.

Reno has sanctioned thousands of patriotic harassment events and should be tried for treason and murder. If America is fortunate, the Parkinson's disease gripping Reno will be the measure of God's justice, leaving her in the vegetative state her soul already occupies.

June's issue of Colony News published a list of 37 close friends, associates and confidants of Clinton who have all died under mysterious circumstances the past 10 years. The most recent and notable being Vince Foster, Ron Brown and ex-CIA director Colby. Many of these documented deaths bear the mark of the Israeli murder-for-hire spy agency Mossad, which pull the strings of power in the superficial Clinton White House.

Scandal after Scandal, involving Clinton's former compadres from Arkansas occur almost daily. Most of the Arkansas transplants, as well as some remaining in that most corrupt of states, have been indicted; are facing indictment; or are already in prison, including the former assistant Attorney General Webster Hubbel, and the present governor Guy Hunt.

Conditions have deteriorated so much regarding Clinton's sexual escapades that the President of the United States of America had to acquire a Bimbo Insurance policy and solicit funds from the public for a sexual misconduct legal defense fund regarding charges filed by Paula Jones. Amazingly, Jennifer Flowers' charges against Clinton were largely dismissed by the American Public even though Clinton was recorded on tape attempting to bribe her.

Clinton's sponsors must go absolutely berserk at his deviant lifestyle, considering the 30 years of programming invested in him. Who would have imagined the sitting President of the United States would be a sexual molester and the First Lady a lesbian, reducing the White House into a orgy filled deviant whorehouse.

Considering that Eleanor Roosevelt was also a lesbian, its not surprising Hillary communicates with her, even if it does mean talking with the dead.

Speaking of Hillary, the titular First Lady of the nation has for the most part represented grace, dignity, and motherly charm. First Lady's like Betty Ford, Rosalind Carter, Mamie Eisenhower and Barbara Bush have served the position with quiet dignity.

Now the country is grossly discredited by the current female occupant of the White House. Hillary is to finances what Bill is to politics, a disgrace; and she certainly is no lady.

Her forced gay and lesbian appointees speak of her lack of morality. Her illegal activities as an attorney speak of her professional ethics. Her clearly inside trader futures market deal speaks of her worship of the almighty dollar instead of God. Her complicity in the Vince Foster murder speaks of her lack of respect for human life.

The illegal events which took place in Arkansas regarding the Whitewater and Madison Saving & Loan deals have now reached the First Lady and the White House itself through massive snowball effect cover-ups.

It's almost certain Hillary was responsible for the White House obtaining FBI personal files on Americans. She is obviously the most underhanded corrupt and powerful person in the country - if not the world. Her complete lack of respect for the laws and Constitution of this country is frightening, and poses a threat to all Americans. Investigation after investigation and soon to be followed by multiple indictments are pending.

Hillary is being investigated for her $100,000 profit from a $1,000 investment in the commodities market; the final Senate committee report investigating Whitewater concluded: Mrs. Clinton was at the forefront of efforts to impede and delay the investigation, to conceal and destroy evidence and documents and to delay access to government investigators.

Also under consideration by Special Prosecutor Kenneth Starr are possible charges of obstruction of justice and perjury against Susan Thomas, Hillary's best friend, Maggie Williams, Hillary's chief of staff and Harold Ickes, deputy White House chief of staff. Indictments naming Hillary herself for obstruction and perjury are probably eminent. Further indictments involving Hillary's role in the Whitewater affair and misdeeds while at the corrupt Rose law firm are probable.

It was Hillary's fingerprints found on the missing documents that were mysteriously discovered in the first family's living quarters. Those records contradict Hillary's previous statements and could also lead to perjury charges. According to Starr, Hillary's shadow is behind every aspect of their investigations.

Immediately following Vince Foster's death, Hillary dispatched her trusted lieutenants to Foster's office whereas they removed files and most likely deposited the suicide note found in pieces. Washington Park police and some secret service agents attested to the fact Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. William's physically removed boxes from Foster's office.

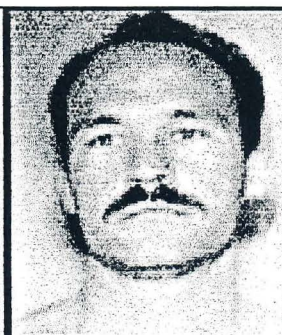

Despite the eyewitness account of this unusual, and possibly illegal act, both Thomas and William's denied they ever partook in such an event to Senate investigators. And they denied this under oath! Then again, truth is a word not associated with the Clinton White House, for truthfulness denoted morality, a trait unheard of in this White House.

There have been 33 convictions in Whitewater matters so far, with many more to certainly come. The prospect of the First Lady of the United States being indicted, convicted and hauled off to jail is very real.

The mental strain on Hillary is becoming apparent. She is increasingly traveling abroad where she seeks refuge from domestic and legal woes. A First Lady joke circulating around Washington is that Hillary is traveling in search of a foreign country where she cannot be extradited from. This may not even be a joke; it could become a reality. Perhaps she would be welcome in Israel, where her lack of concern for peoples rights would meld into the Mossad agenda nicely. We are positive the KGB would welcome her communistic views.

The most likely scenario to evolve from this predicament is Bill and Hillary will be re-elected in November 1996; whereupon Hillary will face indictments during early 1997, forcing the Clinton's to resign, vacating the office of the President for the second time in 25 years. The good news is the disgrace will end, but will America recover?

Food Crises Expanding

By: Marge Zinther

Karnal Fungal disease is imported from Mexico and destroys vast acres of the USA's wheat crop.

Additional wheat land is destroyed by desert like climate conditions in the southwest.

The Honey Bee population is reduced this year by 90% due to a harsh winter, wet spring in the Midwest and east and a parasite that kills the Bees.

Ranchers prematurely unload hundreds of thousands of cattle due to parched grazing land and high feed prices.

A lady I spoke with recently had just returned from a visit to England, where, she said, the food situation is desperate due to wheat and corn crops being almost non-existent. The crop shortage combined with the beef shortage caused by Mad Cow's disease has England begging the World Trade Organization for food imports.

Gen, Van Huizen, State Commander of the Michigan Militia told Colony News recently there would be no fruit trees, especially cherries, due to a severe lack of Honey Bees. Only 20% of the apple tress are producing fruit in Washington State; due, once again to a lack of Honey Bees.

America is down to a 3 days supply of food stock, meaning that any continuing interruption in food supply could result in rationing!

What are the causes behind the food crises in the land of the bountiful?

They are several-fold; including HAARP's possible interruption of normal whether patterns world-wide; The UN controlled WTO's policy of forcing America to sell off food supplies even when those stocks are dangerously low; the effects of GNATT and NAFTA, which contains provisions making it illegal for the United States to retain sufficient supplies of grain in emergency to prevent starvation, coupled with the increasing amount of parasites and crop diseases imported freely from Mexico.

Parts of the lower southwest resemble the dust bowls of the '30s. An entire lake in the Texas town of Zapata has dried up. While crops in the west wither, they drown in the soaked east.

Despite all this, the country is experiencing a small abnormal shortfall in grain supplies. But, under GATT, America has agreed to sustain any shortfall in food supplies within our domestic market. The World Colony has decided America will feed the rest of the world even if it means starving Americans.

Unknown to most Americans is that dried food stocks are at an all time low due to people hoarding and increasing high costs. At the same time we continue to export the dwindling supplies available.

The market effects of the WTO, GATT, and NAFTA are being amplified as time goes on. No longer can this country be the food provider to the rest of the world. Not at the expense of food denial to our own citizens. Upcoming food riots are possible and it is suggested a home victory garden along with canning methods be implemented by all US families as soon as possible.

Are Americans Giving Up Their Privacy?

By: Richard Struthers

Without realizing it, the American public is beginning to resemble the occupants of a large fish bowl; that is their every movement is being closely monitored by an ever present government agency of some kind or another.

The following are just a few privacy concern issues implemented during the first three and a half years of the Clinton administration:

Under Clinton, court-ordered wiretaps have risen 40% during 1996 alone. In 1992 there were 340 court orders permitting electronic surveillance; in 1995 that number had been expanded to 672, and 1996's pace will surely reach 750. These wiretaps do not include 'national security' wiretap orders, which have also risen dramatically. FBI records obtained under the freedom-of-information act by Colony News indicate the White House made over 22,000 written information requests over the two year period of 1993-1994.

Clinton has proposed the counter-terrorism bill, the semi-automatic rifle ban, the clipper chip, the V-chip, a national teenage curfew, a truancy attack squad, a national ID card with BioMetric data, IRS and Social Security information intrusions for tracking deadbeat dads and immigration control based on a national identification system.

Clinton's teen curfew law would prohibit teens on the streets after 8 PM on school nights and 9 PM during summer, extended to 11 PM on weekends - unless accompanied by a parent or engaged in a sponsored activity. So far, Clinton's plan would only apply to the nation's cities, a provision sure to be challenged in court as favoring rural and suburban teens, and discriminatory against inner city youths.

The Clinton administration also supported House bill H. R. 666; which basically permits evidence discovered by police without a search warrant or cause to be used in court against a defendant, thereby effectively circumventing the Warren Courts search and seizure decision protecting a defendants rights against overzealous police. This is especially pertinent to the residents of Philadelphia, where 13 cops were arrested and charged with planting drug evidence on the premises of unsuspecting citizens. As a result of these arrests hundreds of prior cases are being overturned by the Pennsylvania courts.

A top secret computer system called WHOBOD was uncovered and operational within the Clinton White House. The system, nicknamed "Big Brother" has collected records on 200,000 citizens. This, combined with the White House annexation of over 1,000 FBI files on prominent Americans displays warning signs to all Americans that their privacy is being tapped, recorded, accessed and computerized. A dangerous Orwellian precedent with grave privacy ramifications.

The President's immigration policy consists of a proposal under consideration in the US Senate to create a national database able to personally identify every individual in America. The bill is also supported and sponsored by Republican Alan Simpson of Wyoming.

The Justice Department, under murdering Attorney General Janet Reno has been collecting it's own database on Patriotic and Christian Americans. The database is being provided to Justice by the Israeli child molesting head of the SPLC (SPCA?) Morris Dees. We at Colony News personally sent Dees a letter demanding he place us in his database. We feel being a Patriot on Dees list is an honor. Although I personally would love five minutes alone in a room with this degenerate pervert.

Greg Nojeim of the ACLU said: Unless the public steps up pressure to stop the government from proceeding, it will have a giant computer system where every personal decision will have to be cleared through a centralized database.

Many states conduct auto stop and search operations under the phony guise of anti-drinking prevention. Usually the first question asked of a motorist is where he/she is going. It's none of their damm business!

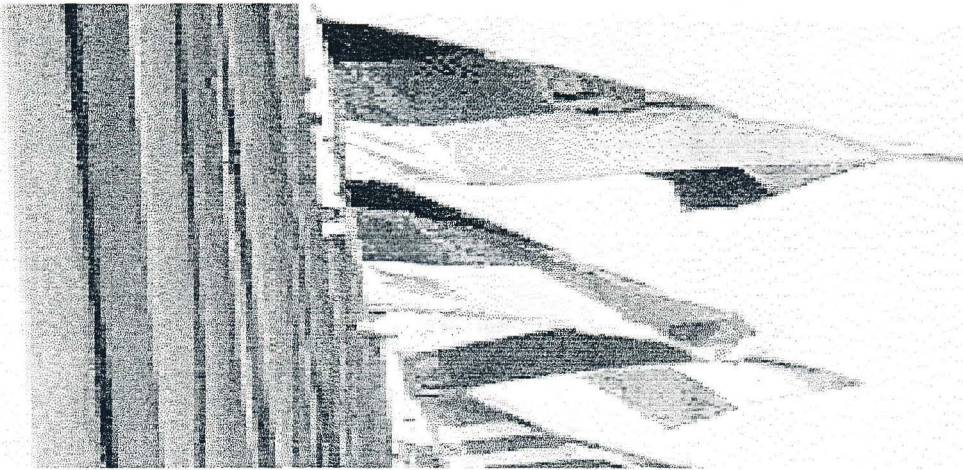

It is now public knowledge the FBI has been accessing and monitoring library patron's reading habits since as far back as 1970. For citizens not aware their privacy is being compromised by watching cable TV; read the fine print your local cable company sends informing you they have the right to sell or provide their subscriber list to anyone of their choosing - unless you notify them otherwise. The information contained in cable company records show what movies you've rented via pay-per-view, your social security number, drivers license number, phone number etc. The V-Chip will provide even more detailed personal information on the American people.

In Ybor City, Tampa Florida, eight surveillance cameras will be installed above street level this fall. Police in Baltimore, Memphis and even England have all used surveillance cameras to record the activities of their citizens.

In New Jersey, a high-tech drivers license will be tested this year. The license will contain a microchip similar to a credit card and will be able to hold information on a persons driving record, medical history, fingerprints, insurance information, tax data and any other personal information the government requires. Utah is also close to testing the ID license, as is Connecticut.

Where this government obsession for personal information is leading is highly dangerous. Maybe our children should just be numbered right from birth instead of named.

Is The New World Order A Threat To American Independence?

By: Patrick Dublin

The name was first espoused, somewhat naively, by President George Bush in 1988 when he informed the American people there would now be a New World Order. The New World Orderist actually had been plying their trade the entire 20th century; but Bush publicly let the cat out of the bag. Since that time, additional terms have surfaced pertaining to World Government. The Global Plantation; The Global Colony; The Bildenburgers. All represent the same master plan: Control of the Earth's peoples by a handful of Bankers, Industrialists, and super patricians.

The organization already in place necessary to usurp National governmental control with World government is the United Nations. It's predecessor, The League Of Nations, failed because of what was perceived as too much centralized control. Undaunted, the early World Colonists revived their global plan with the formation of the UN.

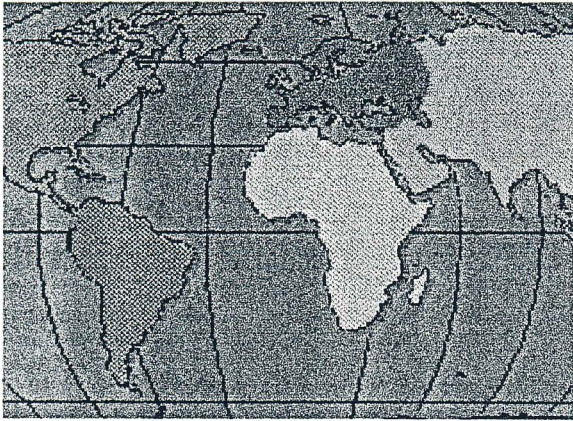

During the past 45 years or so, the UN has been responsible for the majority of military foreign excursions entered into by the USA. Omitting Vietnam, UN directed "peacekeeping" missions have been responsible for more American servicemen losing their lives than any nationalistic military endeavor this country has conducted.

Not satisfied with hiring American mercenary soldiers to effect their vision of world order, the United Nations has decidedly progressed to covet America's soldiers as their own. The United States is not alone in surrendering its armed forces to the World Colonist. All of the major powers on the planet, except China, have acquiesced to UN control of their armies. The vision of blue-helmeted troops; marketed as peace savers, is now recognized in every part of the world.

Stories abound in the Alternative Press, short-wave radio and the Internet of UN vehicles and troops traversing Americas high-ways. While there is verification of UN painted military vehicles within the United States; as far as we can tell many of these sightings are American vehicles loaned to the UN for various missions abroad and simple being returned. Is it possible these UN vehicles are being stationed for eventual deployment within the Continental United States? Frankly, we think yes. But with such an operation being conducted on American soil. It would be plausible to expect some of those involved to leak details and plans. So far we haven't been able to document one verifiable source willing to collaborate this thesis.

With the UN vehicle movement theory in mind, let's examine some circumstances involving the UN, the USA and accurate events that have, and are taken place:

It can be assumed if the World Orderist do plan to circumvent nationality and rule via a world body and court, America must either be receptive to the actuality of world governance, or rendered defenseless to prevent it. There exists several scenarios to accomplish this feat:

The first being the absolute necessity of disarmament. The most formidable standing army in the world -free and not free- is the 200 million guns carried by the American public. Without these weapons, Americans could easily be subject to a repetition of China's Tiananmen Square rout. Armed Americans are what has, and does keep our government honest. Hitler and Stalin both disarmed their country's before assuming dictatorial powers. Free democratic elections are only held by governments in countries that fear the reprisals of their populace. America's history is deeply imbedded in revolution; and even World Orderist recognize the veracity of the American public.

As far back as 1966, Major Archibald Roberts warned: Americans must halt the build-up of a United Nations Army or we will soon find ourselves supervised by sociological drovers in a one-world animal.

United Nations documents state the following: Our recommendation is that the General Assembly should agree to hold a World Conference on Governance in 1998, with its decisions to be ratified and put into effect by 2000.

Further documents issued by the UN state: A start must be made in establishing schemes of global financing of global purposes, including charges for the use of global resources such as flight lanes, sea lanes and ocean fishing areas and the collection of global revenues agreed globally and implemented by treaty.

The document went on to say: It is time for the evolution of a consensus on the concept of global taxation for servicing the needs of the global neighbourhood.

Referring to security matters the UN document said: We strongly endorse community initiatives to protect individual life. To encourage the disarming of civilians and to foster the atmosphere of security in neighbourhoods.

There can be little doubt there are many in the UN, America and elsewhere who would forsake states and national governance for the creation of a World Colony. But their task is formidable, as the freedom loving people of America do not easily sacrifice independence for security.

In order for Americans to comply to such an arrangement a catastrophobic event of monumental proportions would have to occur. This theory has not gone unnoticed by the One Worlders and America needs to be vigilant against contrived disasters, paving the road to a national emergency, possibly invoking martial law, and requiring the assistance of the United Nations.

The previous story on the Upcoming Food Crises becomes more important giving the possible contrivance theory held by some. UN assumption of the US's food supply for world-wide distribution would create a calamitous food shortage in America; prompting the have-nots to forcibly appropriate food from those still fortunate to have some. This sort of precipitated crises would surely result in a national emergency requiring the imposition of martial law; with the remedy to the crises being intervention by the United Nations - thereby opening the door for World Order. With the world-wide ramifications of this sort of crises, a World Colony would be established with the acquiescence of people globally.

Another subtle loss of national sovereignty occurring at an alarming rate is the forfeiture of American soil granted to the UN under the auspices of Global Biodiversity Areas. President Clinton has accelerated this land giveaway, recently ceding 18 million acres of Yellowstone National Park to the United Nations. The UN has requested a 50 mile buffer zone surrounding the Park that would be off-limits to citizens of this country. The Great Smoky Mountains Biosphere Reserve is another. There are eighteen properties labeled 'Heritage Sites' under UN ownership. These include Yosemite National Park, The Grand Canyon National Park, the Statue of Liberty Park plus Heritage Sites in 37 other states.

All of the land in these National Parks containing a Bio or Heritage Site now belongs to the United Nations. Is this another method of accustoming the American people to the notion we all now live in the spaceship Earth, under the land and rule of One World Government?

Dissecting the larger picture, we seem to our military being led by the UN. Parts of our National Parks are UN owned. The United Nations now has the authority -under GNAT and NAFTA to ration food supplies in the US while demanding export of those items worldwide.

Congressman Joe Scarborough of Florida has introduced The United Nations Withdrawal Act (H.R.-2535) to get us out of the UN. The proposed bill is sure to remain in the House Committee on International Relations however.

The theory of civil insurrection answerable by imposition of martial law is viable. The relentless assault on gun-owning Americans continues. Super-hype over the Olympics, now termed The World Games is indicative of global positioning. The elimination of borders for immigration and economic purposes is increasing. Multiculturalism and Multinationalism predominate today's vocabulary.

We honestly don't know if such a Global Plantation plan is eminent. We do know free trade has cost our nations peoples their economic future and unstoppable immigration has cost our country it's identity. The former days of American sovereignty seem over. An agency destined to assist our people; FEMA, now is accused of compiling Red and Blue lists of American Patriots. God Bless America.

HAARP's Wild Weather Part II

By: Michael Devlin

High Frequency Active Auroral Research Program

For the many new readers and subscribers who missed Part I of HAARP; a brief description of the secretive US and worldwide program originating in Alaska is as follows:

HAARP incorporates the basics of Tesla technology to transmit extremely large amounts of RF energy into the ionosphere for the government stated purpose of studying RF effects on the atmosphere. A similar program, called Woodpecker, has been under way in Russia for a number of years.

Lets begin with a examination of the wild weather affecting the US, and other regions of the globe:

- Last summer produced the second highest number of Hurricanes in the Atlantic in recorded weather history.
- Last winter produced the heaviest single snowfall in on the east coast weather history, over a hundred ten years of records.
- Last winter also produced the highest seasonal snowfall totals in the east in weather history, and these records included towns uses to high snow totals as they lay in the eastern snowbelt.

- The southwest is experiencing drought of 1930's dust bowl proportions, threatening the nations food supply.
- During July of 1996, Philadelphia had not experienced one day of 90 degree temperatures. Normally 12 to 15 can be expected. In fact the east is experiencing the coolest summer possible on record.
- Flooding rains continue to inundate the east, much as record snows had, while the west is burning up, unable to receive any measurable rain.
- Britain is also experiencing one of it's driest summers on record, destroying that nations crops.
- Quebec Providence in Canada has been poured on this summer with as much as 12 inches of rain at once, causing massive flood damage and loss of life.
- This summer so far produced the earliest Cape Verde formed Hurricane ever recorded, which traversed the entire Atlantic and landed at North Carolina, causing untold property damage.
- Three winters ago the east was subject to the most severe ice storms ever recorded, depositing up to 4 inches of solid ice combined with below zero temperatures.
- The east coast winter of three years ago produced a record 17 winter storms, many of them ice laden. This past winter produce 14 winter storms, most of which deposited heavy amounts of snow.
- Four summers ago the Midwest suffered rains and flood of biblical proportions, destroying the corn belt, homes and lives.
- The abnormal weather, which has produced conditions never before recorded in over a hundred and ten years, has also destroyed the honey bee population necessary to pollination of fruit trees.
- Forest fires, normally ever present during the late summer and early fall in the west, have sprouted up earlier than usual in Utah, Arizona, New Mexico, California and even Alaska.

•While record heat blasts the far west, producing hundred degree temperatures two months earlier than normal-record cold besets the upper Midwest and east. The ocean temperature of Atlantic City-normally in the mid-seventies approaching august-hovers in the mid-sixties.

What does all this mean, and what is behind it? The answer lies in that familiar ribbon of air we've all heard about; the jet stream, a funnel of high winds present in the atmosphere that direct or hold at bay huge mounds of cold air high-pressure systems over the Arctic and upper Canada. The jet stream is also responsible for guiding the storm track affecting the United States, and it's sometimes steep bends produce vigorous low pressure areas.

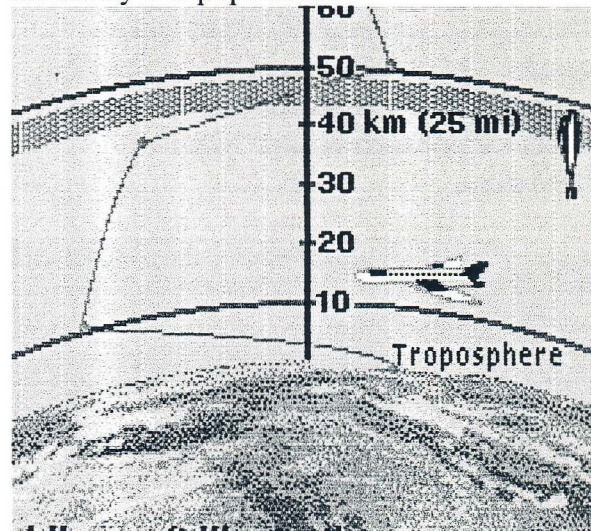

Analysis of weather patterns in conjunction with the jet stream the past five years indicate an abnormally high rise over the upper far west and Alaska, which produces an reverse dip entering the upper Midwest and dropping southeastward, where it then bends upward, exiting the continent over the east coast.

This pattern is not by itself abnormal; fluctuations occur constantly over time and consistent with the rotation of the earth and the change of seasons.

A dip in the stream towards the east results in colder air and storminess in that section of the country, and allowing heat and arid conditions to invade the west. Since usually this pattern is always reversing itself, America's climate becomes balanced as a western dip produces rain and snowfall for California and the Rocky Mountain chain, and the winter thaw commonplace in eastern winters.

The problem lately has been the jet stream appears to be pushed-up over Northern Canada and Alaska continuously, except for very brief fluctuations. The result of this pattern is a very hot and dry west and southwest, causing great damage crops; and a very wet and cold east, which has also damaged some crops along with the honey bee population.

How does HAARP enter this equation? Quite simply. The governments description of HAARP's effect on the atmosphere is that the RF radiation beams directed upward from it's 37 projector towers produce only minimal disruption on the atmosphere, and that it returns to normal quickly after the RF signals are discontinued. However, many scientist have doubts over that statement.

The fact the HAARP system contains highly sensitive radar designed to shut the system down upon the approach of aircraft over the site because of possible damage and interference with a planes electrical system indicates the potency of the signals.

On the assumption the RF signals are either stronger than the government project managers suspect - or they are aware and deliberately continue to effect jet stream pattern changes; the result would be a higher projection of the atmosphere surrounding the site (Gakona, Alaska) thereby pushing the jet stream upwards over Alaska and resulting in a downward dip in the stream over the upper Midwest and East.

Exactly the pattern the Jet has been locked into the past 4 or 5 years!

This was about the time the HAARP project was initiated. It appears when HAARP is up and running, this abnormal Jet Steam pattern affecting the continents weather remains constant. On the other hand, when routine maintenance causes shutdown, our weather patters resume their normal balanced fluctuations.

For those not familiar with the HAARP program; administrative and evaluation of the program is being provided by the Air Force under the auspices of Phillips Laboratory and the Naval Research Laboratory.

The project is run and patented by Advanced Power Technologies Inc. (APTI) a subsidiary of E-Systems, which is wholly owned by Raytheon Corporation, who was awarded the contract to design and build the IRI.

HAARP is not limited to the United States alone, and the Alaska site is but one of two; the other site being near the Arecibo Observatory in Puerto Rico.

Facilities also are located at Jicamarca, Peru; near Moscow, Nizhny Novgorod and Apatity; in other parts of Russia near Kharkov, Ukraine; and in Dushanbe, Tadzhikistan.

All of these locations posses the capability of stimulating to a varying degree small, localized regions of the ionosphere.

Was Flight 800 Lost To Missile • Bomb • Terrorist Faulty Maintenance Or Government Act

By: Marge Zinther

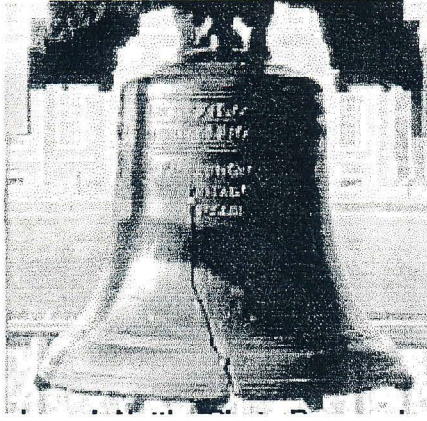

As Colony News goes to press here on July 26 there still is no answer to the tragic dilemma of flight 800, on its last leg New York to Paris.

Two hundred thirty people, including crew perished suddenly and unexpectedly within eleven minutes of takeoff from JFK airport over the Atlantic Ocean.

As is becoming all too prevalent, within minutes of the American people learning of the disaster; television was alive with talking head experts naming some Arab terrorist group or another with the placement of a bomb aboard the ill-fated plane. This scenario was repeated immediately after the Murrah building blast in Oklahoma City.

The fact is folks, as of this date, every theory is pure speculation. While its well in the realm of possibility flight 800 succumbed to an Arab terrorist bomb - we just don't know that yet. Up to a dozen eyewitnesses have reported seeing a flash of light in the planes direction resembling a missile. These accounts could not be verified by satellite or radar.

Mechanical failure is still possible, although the abruptness of the crash and flight recorder seem to diminish that probability Was a rogue element of the government responsible, in hopes of creating fear in the public and imposing ever more rights restrictions on Americans? The next few weeks will tell.

NJ Militia Founder Jailed For Contempt Of Court

BY: Michael Devlin

Just three days after giving an exclusive interview to Colony News, NJ Militia Founder Bob Figueroa was jailed without notice for 30 days by Mercer County Municipal Judge Blackburn.

Figueroa, who had previously posted a $500 bond with the court, was appearing before Blackburn on a domestic matter. The NJ Militia Leader had already notified Blackburn her court had no jurisdiction in the matter at hand, and had filed assertion of rights papers with the state.

Blackburn, an ultra-liberal black woman judge was disturbed when Figueroa refused to be represented by an attorney, and became further incensed when Bob appeared in court with a tape recorder intending to tape the proceedings. The Trenton municipal court has a sordid history of losing court transcripts. It was quite obvious Judge Blackburn was enraged over Figueroa's demonstrated prowess of the law - which was far superior to Blackburns - a affirmative action judicial appointee with the IQ of a baboon.

Figueroa previously had appeared before a Judge McMannion, another political appointee, whose father was a long time crooked Democratic State Senator from Mercer County. Figueroa filed court papers with the intent to impeach McMannion.

No doubt the judges decided to forego the Constitution in favor of retribution in the militia's members case, as a few minutes into the hearing Blackburn abruptly ordered sheriffs deputies to escort Figueroa to the Mercer County Workhouse for 30 days.

Blackburn actually told Figueroa he was threatening the court and judge by challenging their jurisdiction on constitutional grounds!

Figueroa, who was finally released on July 24, is an upstanding family man and City of Trenton Firefighter.

In the interview with Colony News before his arrest Figueroa, who is a Libertarian and hails from Puerto Rico mentioned several pressing concerns facing America today.

He said he has a problem with race's doing thing only for their own good, and said the NJM is an equal opportunity militia. Figueroa mentioned he's thinking about running against Republican Congressman Chris Smith.

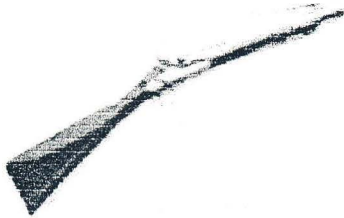

The former Military Security MP said the NJM needs to practice combat defense skills and could use practical combat skills training. Figueroa explained the meaning of the gold fringe around the American flag; stating it represents military / martial / maritime law, indicating the constitution does not apply.

He went on to say: The people are mere resources used as tools for state extracted revenue, and that government creates problems so it can present programs for solutions, adding a dumber American population is easier to control.

On education Bob said: Privatized schools are needed for better grades, parent involvement and lower taxes.

He also reiterated Militias need to be military in nature, not coffee clubs

Religiously speaking Figueroa said: God commands you to investigate public officials. Speaking of militias Bob reminded folks militia members refuse to be sheep and will not be intimidated and people have no cause to fear them, as many are involved in neighborhood crime watch programs.

Crops Main Concern Of Gen. Van Huizen, Michigan Militia

By: Patrick Dublin

In an Exclusive interview with Colony News, when asked about his summer so far, General Lynn Van Huizen, State Commander of the Michigan Militia joked he was still waiting for it to arrive. The General told Colony News the summer has been so cold in Michigan this year that the corn crop is severely stunted and almost worthless, chiefly because many farmers had to wait until late June to plant. General Van Huizen also said: because of a 90% reduction in honey bees, the cherry crop is non-existent. When this editor mentioned the effects of HAARP on the nations weather, Gen. Van Huizen said he would be real interested to know if airline pilots notice any lift in the jetstream.

Regarding the Arizona Vipers Van Huizen told Colony News he, nor any other militia he has contacted, ever heard of them, but did understand many of the Vipers were legitimate gun collectors owning many old weapons.

General Van Huizen was particularly irritated over remarks attributed to the US ambassador to Saudi Arabia who compared the Saudi bombing of the US military barracks to acts of terrorism stateside, such as those involving the Michigan Militia. Along with the General, we would like this stupid ambassador to put the proof in the putting.

Mentioning the Bob Starr fiasco in Georgia, General Van Huizen said he believes the government was overzealous in planting contraband on Starr's property, adding; Starr was in the plumbing business, of course he had pipes and wires on his property.

Van Huizen was adamant in his support of Brigadier Gen Pardon's and ex-FBI agent Gunderson's analytical report concluding two bombs went off at the Murrah building in Oklahoma City. In concluding the Michigan Militia Commander mentioned that he has seen two Pat Buchanan For President commercials on local TV, and that he still has hope Pat will accept the nomination of the US Taxpayers Party.

Kathy Gettis: Patriotic Radio Host Of Delaware Valley

By: Michael Devlin

All across the land the airwaves, both short wave and commercial, are ringing with the sounds of Patriotic America. One of those voices is that of Mrs. Kathy Gettis, of station WTTM, 920 on the AM dial.

Mrs. Gettis, who has been married 32 years devotes almost all of her spare time and resources to broadcast a two hour a day (Mon-Fri) interview-call-in show where patriotic issues predominate.

In an exclusive interview with Colony News, this Senior Editor sat across from Mrs. Gettis observing and listening to callers for two hours.

The radio station's coverage area is Eastern Pennsylvania and Western New Jersey, with a potential audience in the millions. Kathy's task is formidable as she airs directly in competition with Philadelphia's Libertarian radio superstar Irv Homer, who has been on for 20 years. Despite this obstacle Kathy's Patriotic show is besieged by a constant barrage of phone calls from concerned Americans wishing to present their viewpoint on air.

Kathy's desk is usually covered with Patriotic publications ranging from Media Bypass to Colony News and literally hundreds of articles sent in by listeners

Mrs. Gettis conducts many on-air live interviews with notable Patriots countrywide. The day I was present Kathy was hooked-up with Hugh Sprunt, who was discussing his articles on Vince Foster's death.

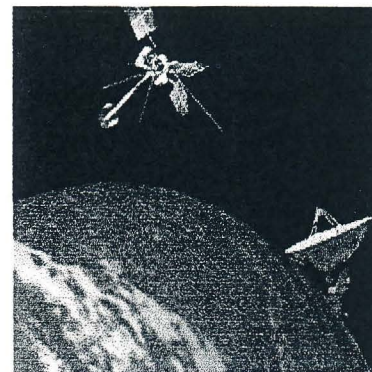

The Gettis show listens to all sides of issues, as attested to when one caller berated Sprunt as a jerk, wishing he would let the Foster death alone. Another caller mentioned Democrats controlled Congress all but six years since 1933. Another caller mentioned the illegitimacy of the Federal Reserve Funny Money System.

Mrs. Gettis has been an activist her entire life, having formed the first Natural Childbirth Organization back in 1979. She has been active for decades in the Pro-Life movement and is an vehement Anti-Abortionist. She has been undergoing Chelation Therapy the past two years and is an adamant believer of homeopathy.

Mrs. Gettis' strong suit is her ability to listen and learn and she definitely offers the Delaware Valley real freedom of speech.

There can be no doubt the nation as a whole is well-served by the prevalence of Patriotic alternative radio and press outlets. Anyone who has attempted to call and discuss constitutional issues on Limbaugh's show, or C-Span, or most local call-in shows know the frustration of being cut-off or being derided as a right-wing-kook, or worse. Mrs. Gettis, and those like her, do the nation a huge favor by presenting Patriotism on air.

News For Readers Out Of Touch With The Electronic World

The Military and FBI have begrudgingly admitted there was an armed military helicopter in the vicinity of the ill-fated Flight 800. Federal authorities had previously said the plane was at too high an altitude (13,583 ft.) for a missile to be the cause of the explosion. This raises the question was the military, inadvertent or not, the cause of Flight 800's demise?

A letter on the Internet to Bill Cooper states the whole business of fifth columns and the basis for Roger Morris' book; Partners In Power was a contrived hoax. The author says Morris bought into his dis-information and used it as source for his book. This lends credence to Colony News' position that Morris is a fraud.

• Late Breaking News From Atlanta

By: Colony Staff

Just as we were going to press, another strange major development occurred; this time it involved the explosion of a pipe-bomb in Olympic Park during a concert. The Park is not part of Olympic Village but is adjacent to it.

The explosion was responsible for the death of one black female, the other death attributed to the blast; a Turkish cameraman rushing to the scene actually died of a heart attack unrelated to the bomb itself.

The most frightening aspect of this act was that Patriotic groups across the country have been predicting for months the possibility of the government causing an act of domestic terrorism during the Olympics. Paradoxically the government and the media immediately labeled the act in Atlanta Domestic Terrorism. This rapid government response sent chills down our spine; for quite frankly, we at Colony News have taken the position neither a terrorist nor the government would commit such an act. We apologize to all the militia leaders across the country who have been informing us of the potential for the government to showcase domestic terrorism during the Olympics.

The utilization of a pipe bomb for this act, and the striking resemblance to the allegedly found pipe bombs on Georgia Militia Leader Bob Starr's property, seems more than coincidence.

Is it possible the government is attempting to link the two together in order to bolster it's sagging cases against Starr and the Vipers? We, and our readers, should take notice of the two almost uncanny acts of terrorism that have taken place since the beginning of the Olympics.

One, Flight 800 was inferred to be an act of foreign terrorism; the other, the Olympic Park bomb, is inferred to be an act of domestic terrorism.

Could this be, as the conspiracy theorists would have us believe, the start of a government reign of terror designed for the purpose of implementing more liberty taking laws; and even martial law itself.

Already, Americans questioned in the nations airports have proclaimed the extra long wait due to increased security is okay with them; in fact necessary.

The TV pictures of soldiers in military drab assisting and providing security to Atlanta's visitors should be cause for concern. This is America folks, soldiers are not suppose to be present on our streets - no matter what the reason!

Unfortunately, some 100 innocent people were also injured from the Atlanta blast. The bomb was filled with metal scraps and nails, intending to inflict maximum civilian casualties. This is a cowardly act and the perpetrators should be apprehended as soon as possible, but, without abridging the constitutional guaranteed rights of the majority of honest, law-abiding citizens.

We admit, we are not the biggest believers of conspiracy theories on the planet; however, we are not blind and stupid either. It's becoming clearer with time, the government is making conspiracy believers of us.

Satellite / Internet News Continued:

As previously reported in Colony News, Rush Limbaugh is suffering deep declines in both his radio and TV audience. Indicative of this trend is that almost all stations carrying his TV show in major markets have assigned his ½ show to after midnight late hour spots. Trying to save face and realizing his imminent fate in TV land, the puppet voice of the Republican status quo and World Colony advocate announced on radio He will be terminating his long viewer-ignored TV show in August. We don't want to say it-but, we told you so.

Another propaganda laden waste of TV viewing; C-Span, whose notion of balanced news and Washington coverage consists of two Democrats and Two Republicans on the same show, has now taken defense of the Clinton Administration one step further. Upset with the predominate number of callers expressing conservative views, CEO Brian Sheep (it is a form of Lamb) recently instituted a caller policy that only accepts equal calls from Democrats and Republicans!

Each of these two nation destroying parties have their own number for callers. No mention nor number is provided for Independents, Populists or Libertarians. As we've mentioned before, Brian Sheep's puppetmasters are the Cable Television Industry, which pays the Sheep's salary, and which is 80% owned by establishment press media conglomerates.

The IRA has returned to its violent methods in response to Britain's lack of honesty in negotiations. Bombs have been exploding in mid-air all over England since that government's underhandedness is resolving it's 30 year occupation of Northern Ireland. British troops still patrol the streets of the Irish Independent Nation.

The Patriotic community is abuzz about FEMA's alleged collection of a red list, which supposedly targets members of the Patriotic community for extermination in government sponsored death camps, and FEMA's blue list, which selects Patriotic individuals for immediate roundup and possible extermination at a later date. There seems to be lots of talk about lists nowadays, so how about the list we wish to be put on; the government shit list. Oh well.

Black soldier arrested for painting swastikas on army barrack doors at Fort Bragg, NC. Naturally the act was first blamed on skinhead or raciest elements within the army and was publicized as such. The arrest of a Negro hardly received any mention in the press. Now that this is straightened out, how about looking towards blacks for involvement in church burnings.

Speaking of Israel, and we really don't like to, we see Prime Minister Nit-whatever his name is- is involved in a Nannygate affair. Seems as his wife's a real bitch according to the last two nanny's he's employed. Sounds like her and Hillary should hit it off fine.

Note: Colony News refuses to publish names we cannot pronounce nor understand. This includes Chief-of-Staff General Shali-whatever. Whatever happened to American names! We have Nit, Shali, Yeltsin, Butros etc. It's Our publication and we'll do it Our way!

Does anyone miss old-fashioned soda fountains? How about the Four Lads? Hell, we even miss Elvis. What we miss most though is Drive-In-Movies. VCR's can never replace them.

Possibility or Probability?

There isn't a country in the world that wouldn't take over the United States if it had the opportunity. Individually, other countries don't have the ability to do this, but collectively (through the United Nations), this is not only a possibility, but also a probability. Our one vote in the UN means nothing at all.

This thing they call foreign aid (I call it treason) strengthens our enemies and weakens us and has no possible benefits to the people of this country whatsoever.

What benefits there are go to the international bankers and industrialists. This, of course, is why it exists.

Congress will take no steps against these vultures to alleviate the hardships created for the taxpayers. This is why the voters should forget about term limits and impose their own limits in the next election. Every congressman should be kicked out of office every election until we get some in office who will heed the wishes of the majority of the American people.

The main reason I robbed the banks was to generate media publicity in order to warn the United States of a sneak nuclear attack against us, soon to be delivered by JAPAN. Thank you so very much for publishing my essay entitled The Patriot. You know, a lot of guys just lay down and give up when they go to prison. The Feds have a way of taking the fight out of a guy. But your publishing my essay is a message to every incarcerated American male who still bleeds red, white and blue. You can still fight them, with a pen or a typewriter, or just by spreading the word and educating your fellow inmates. The war is not lost because you are locked up - its just begun.

Your kindness and generosity to us here at the Atlanta Penn. Will never be forgotten, I promise you. Your magazine is read by dozens of good men who still love their country in spite of what the government has done to them and their families. God bless you on this journey or hope for a better tomorrow, but whatever happens, truth and justice will always follow the Patriot.

Marge Zinther, in the July issue of the Colony News, warns the the Feds are coming! To Atlanta. One of the things the the patriotic movement needs to work on is identification. I realize that FEDS is an abbreviation for federal and used to identify government agents.

Actually, it's the national government that is causing all the problems. Therefore referring to government agents as NATS seems to me to be a more accurate identification. If you put a lower case "g" before NATS it becomes gNATS. These are what the Founding Fathers had in mind when they spoke about swarms of (gNATS) being sent out to harass the people and eat out their substance.

Our Jewish enemy throughout the centuries have sought not only to infect the minds of our people with self-destructive alien philosophies (such as Christianity) but have also sought to take advantage of those ideas and destructive attitudes which for whatever reason, our people have over time adopted. One of these latter ideas is nationalism, which we Creators would define as chauvinism on behalf of one's country-essentially saying that "my country's better than yours and that my country must come before yours simply due to the fact that I reside in it."

This ides, which has been around for only a few hundred years, has been extremely detrimental to the existence of our Race, and extremely beneficial to our Jewish enemy. It has been the impetus for scores of wars between White nations, skillfully manipulated wars with Jews on both sides of the line on the map, rooting each side on to maximize about how they would economically back both sides so that during the ensuing devastation, they would make big profits no matter who won. This is similar to what the Jews did in post World War I Germany when the Jews bought up German real estate at a fraction at its true value by starving citizens who sold their property so that they could eat for another day.

Before there was ever a "nation," there were White people. This in itself makes Race much more important than nation. Nations are artificial while Race is not. Nations come and go (as we've witnessed in Eastern Europe the past few years), but Race is, or has the potential to be, permanent. You can change your nation, but you cannot change your Race. As such, we Creators refuse to recognize lines drawn on a map as divisions between our White people. We are one people, and the future of our Race will depend on how unified we are.

There are many White people worldwide who are still infected with the nationalist idea, including many White racist. There are White racist who insist on promoting "America" without realizing that America has become part of the problem. This is one of the many reasons why Creativity is different-we do fall into the "Old Glory" waving rut. We would jump up and cheer if every "American" nigger perished tomorrow, but we must wince when we hear that Whites in England perished in a bomb attack, or more Whites have died in Bosnia, etc. What matters is Race-all else is secondary. We owe our allegiance first, second, and last to our White Race and to that Faith which will insure the survival of our Race, Creativity. We want only one flag to wave above this land, and indeed above the entire planet earth-the flag of Creativity.

I have just finished reading the innocuously-titled article "The Destructiveness of Perfectionism, Implication for the Treatment of Depression" in the December issue of the American Psychologist by Professor Sidney J. Blatt of the Yale University Department of Psychology. Ostensibly an examination of the motivation behind the recent suicide deaths of three prominent and successful men, it turns out to be something quite different upon closer examination.

One of the three men, you see, and the one enjoying the prominent lead place in the article, was Vincent W. Foster, Jr., Deputy White House Counsel.

When the analyst relies almost completely upon secondary sources for his information about the subject's mental state the validity of the inquiry results become all the more questionable. When those secondary sources are only newspapers, and those newspapers are only the New York Times and the Washington Post, then the whole exercise is little better than a sick joke.

Do I exaggerate? Let's look at the facts. Professor Blatt deduces much about Foster's thought process, fingerprints and torn-up note which mysteriously materialized in Foster's briefcase some days after it was searched and thought to be empty.

Blatt is able to invest such confidence in the authenticity of the note because his twin bibles failed to carry the October Reuters dispatch reporting the three certified handwriting experts, one of whom is renowned literary document authenticator, Reginald Alton of Oxford University, had independently and unanimously, with extensive supporting explanation, pronounced the note a mediocre forgery.

Blatt also tells us that Foster "did not seem to be his usual self, his mood seemed low, he spent weekends in bed with the shades drawn, recently lost 15 pounds and sent out signals of pessimism that alarmed friends and colleagues.

Virtually every word of that statement evaporates upon closer examination. Had Blatt done the responsible thing and consulted the writings of Foster case investigator Christopher Ruddy of the Pittsburgh Tribune Review, he would have discovered that, at the time of his physical examination on December 31, 1992, Foster weighed 194 pounds and that his body when autopsied on July 21, 1993, weighed 197 pounds.

Furthermore, White House spokesperson, Dee Dee Myers, says in the Washington Times of July 1993, that the story about Foster working in the bed on weekends with the blinds drawn is not true.

Perhaps Professor Blatt deserves the benefit of the doubt and did not realize just how contrived is the press case upon which he depends so completely. It is not almost as easy to believe that what he has produced is not really a work of scholarship, but of propaganda?

The recent saturation media coverage of both the Israeli and Russian elections
New York City newspaper and television stations do not cover our local or national elections as extensively. One might have thought the Israeli Prime Minister was running for mayor of America's largest city, and Yeltsin was surely being elected Governor of New York State. Give me a break, this global plantation bullshit is going too far. I don't give a hoot about the vodka drinking Russians or the beanie wearing Jews.

Why You Must Own This Book:

- The information contained in this book is unbiased, nondenominational and fulfills a Judeo/Christian search for the truth.
- All quotes are from the Scofield Study Bible, The King James Version.
- 50 years of research went into this book coupled with ACTUAL CONTACT WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT who broke the SEAL concealing the long hidden truths of the ancient PROPHETS.
- The author, because of his association with the HOLY SPIRIT, has been the witness of many miracles, including instant healing and now a medicine FROM GOD.
- The secret of the SHABUAS (God's clock) is graphically shown.
- The book includes 4 full color Prophecy Charts which help the reader to a complete understanding of God's timetable.
- Backup references to rare information are given wherever possible.
- Many false concepts are dispelled such as the erroneous belief that no one can know the time of Christ's return.

WARNING: This book was not written to put you to sleep with false promises, deliver you by deception nor to continue with the errors of the established church. You will learn instead of the staggering Satanic plot against Humanity and what you can do about it and ultimately, what GOD intends to do about it. It will become clear to you that the NEW WORLD ORDER stands directly in the path of GOD'S KINGDOM.

ALSO INCLUDED WITH THE BOOK:

This book was published in February-1992 and at that time included only the 16 page full color booklet. Information continued to come from the HOLY SPIRIT, shedding light on subjects which were only touched upon such as the Prophecy Gap in the original printing. It was decided that UPDATES would be written to keep the reader abreast of events such as signs from GOD and more current happenings. This has resulted in the UPDATES you see on the right. All of these are included with your book along with a 17" x 22" full color chart which not only outlines the activity of the Four Horsemen but also shows how GOD is using Shabuas to mark time. We are presently waiting for the last Prophecy Shabua to begin. A future UPDATE may be issued regarding the approximate date when Russia will invade Israel. At that time, a major Nuclear War is possible.
